

What is the CAC?

The Community Advisory Committee (CAC) for special education is an advisory committee to the Humboldt – Del Norte Superintendent’s Special Education Policy Council.

The SELPA has a northern CAC branch that meets at:
Del Norte County Office of Education
301 W. Washington Blvd.
Crescent City

The SELPA has a southern CAC branch that meets at:
Humboldt County Office of Education
901 Myrtle Avenue
Eureka.

The CAC usually meets quarterly, during the months of September, November, February and April.

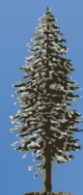

The public is warmly invited to attend CAC meetings. Input from the community is always welcome.

What can the CAC do for me?

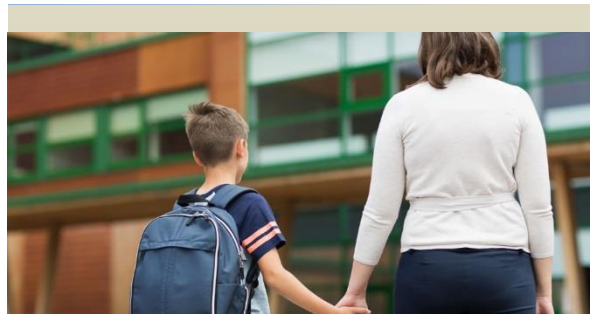

- Keep you informed about current and/or future programs and legislation affecting special education.
- Provide you with access to resources and agencies that serve disabled children;
- Provide you with parent training information;
- Provide you with access to SELPA staff, resources, and activities; and
- Provide you with networking opportunities with other concerned parents.

CAC Membership

- Parents of children in special education make up the majority of our membership.
- Other members include school personnel, representatives from public and private agencies, students and adults with disabilities, or community members concerned about special needs children and young adults.
- We appreciate your interest in the CAC. We would warmly welcome you as a guest or member.

CAC responsibilities include:

- Advising the people who make decisions regarding special education;
- Recommending annual priorities;
- Assisting in parent education;
- Encouraging community involvement through parent and volunteer recruitment to effect the development, implementation, and review of the services and systems affecting students with disabilities, and;
- Supporting activities on behalf of students with exceptional needs who qualify for special education services and programs.
